

THE PRESERVE ON ANATASIA ISLAND
NEWSLETTER
January 2019

Happy New Year: The beginning of a new year is traditionally the time to make resolutions to lead a more healthful productive life. The Preserve is looking at ways to help you maintain your New Year's Resolution. A new Rowing machine has been added to the gym equipment. We are also in search of someone to teach an exercise class on a regular basis. This person should be licensed and insured. Compensation could come from the participants. Interested participants and instructors should check in at the office or email Jenny Imholt at Jennifer.imholt@yahoo.com

Beach Blast Off Into 2020: Tuesday December 31 4:00-10:00 PM at the St Augustine Pier. The Beach Blast Off features vendors, kid's activities, live music, food, drinks, and a grand firework display to ring in the New Year in St. Augustine. <https://www.visitstaugustine.com/event/beach-blast>

Pickle Ball: Calling all pickle ball players. One of our residents has generously offered to bring a pickle ball net to the basketball court. Paddles and balls must be supplied individually.

Trivia Night: Looking ahead to February we would like to start a monthly Trivia Night. Get your thinking caps ready. Details will follow.

Game Day Wednesday: Now that the summer pool fun is over, we have brought back Game Day Wednesday. Join us at 1:00 on most Wednesdays. If you would like a friendly text reminder, please provide Jenny Imholt with your cell phone number to be added to the list.

Coupon Books: At the Annual Owners Meeting the budget for 2020 was approved. Once again there are no changes to the HOA fees. That is 10 years without an increase. The coupon books have been ordered and will be available soon.

Night of Lights: St Augustine's Night of Lights runs from November 23 to February 2. It's not too late to see St Augustine sparkle. There are 7 ways to see The Night of Lights. <https://www.visitstaugustine.com/article/7-ways-to-see-nights-lights>
