Mother's Day May 12 A time to honor our mothers both here on earth or in Heaven above. There is no love like a mother's love. She is a source of inspiration - hard work, patience, humility, simplicity, perseverance, tolerance, forgiveness, understanding, farsightedness, funny, tough... You know your mom. Fill in the rest. As for mine, she was all I could ever hope to be. Happy Mother's Day to all.

Mother's Day started as an anti-war movement. Anna Jarvis is most often credited with founding Mother's Day in the United States. Designated as the second Sunday in May by President Woodrow Wilson in 1914, aspects of that holiday have since spread overseas, sometimes mingling with local traditions.
